Welcome to Directors, Players, and supporters of Runaway Leaders Carlisle United. With our next two games being against the best teams in the division Carlisle and Walsall, last Saturday was not the best time to get beaten by the team second from bottom, these things do happen.

We will have hiccups along the way especially as we are trying to change our style. The most disappointing thing about the game with Northampton was that our passing was so poor it almost looked as if we were back to our old style. Our passing has improved over the past two months but must continue to get better. We work all week on passing and finishing and would expect that it would show during our games. Sometimes it is not as evident as others, as showed on Saturday. The players must improve their passing or we must improve the players if we are going to get out of this division.

On a brighter note Allan Smart who has had only 12 first team games has been called up for Scotland's Under-21 squad v Russia in March.

David Lucas the 17 year old goalkeeper that I made my first signing has also been called up for England youth a year earlier than expected as he is still eligible to play at youth level next year.

The next two games will really be a test for us, as I feel both Carlisle and Walsall are as good as any teams in the division above.

Thank you for your support we need it more than ever today.

FROM THE SECRETARY

This Saturday will have our highest League attendance of the season and will hopefully better the divisions highest attendance of 12,242 which was set by Carlisle earlier in the season in the game against Bury. I would even like to think that we would equal the crowd we had against Blackpool in the F.A. Cup Tie and lets hope we can re-create some of that fantastic atmosphere we had on that night for today's game.

Talking of Blackpool, on Wednesday next week we are aiming to set up a new record attendance for a Pontins League fixture at Deepdale when we play Blackpool Reserves in one of our Family Fun Nights. The highest attendance for a reserve game this season was against Newcastle when we had a marvellous crowd of over 3,000. There is always a special feeling about playing Blackpool and I hope that you will all come along and support the team and make it into a Family Fun Night to remember.

The First Team game which was postponed at Exeter on Saturday 28th January has now been re-arranged for Tuesday 21st March, 7.30pm kick-off. The two outstanding Pontins League fixtures have also now been re-arranged , the home fixture against Bradford City will now take place at Deepdale on Wednesday 8th March, kick-off 7.00pm and the one against Burnley to be played at Turf Moor will now be played on Thursday 16th March 7.15pm kick-off.

Club Secretary.

Charlton Athletic Supporters' Club

Dear Sir,
As you are no doubt aware, two coachloads of Charlton supporters visited your ground on the evening of January 10th to watch your match with Colchester United, our own fixture at Burnley having fallen victim to the weather.

I would be grateful if you could pass on to Preston officials, police and supporters - if possible through your matchday programme - our sincere thanks for the hospitality we received from all concerned.

As it is now a number of years since our clubs have met in League competition, it was the first time many of us had visited Deepdale. But we were made most welcome, to the extent that few of us regarded the day as having been wasted.

Good luck for the rest of the season, although I hope that when we do meet again it will be at least as fellow members of Division One!

Yours faithfully,

Rick Everitt (Secretary)

AROUND DIVISION THREE

With Mike Payne

Perhaps the Pools Panel is not so inaccurate as I thought! Northampton, fresh from defeats at home to Scarborough and away at Hereford, play Preston North End, fresh from a run of just one defeat in ten games. Surely it must be an away win? But no, Northampton play with more passion and fire than they have shown throughout the previous six months and Preston are off the boil. Result? Home win! No wonder I can never win a first divi! The win lifted Northampton no end and the mood around the new Sixfields Stadium after the game had to be seen to be believed. You would have thought that they had just clinched promotion. The only consolation for Preston fans was Allan Smart's wonderful goal. What a way to celebrate his call up for the Scottish U-21 party to go to Russia soon for an international. Many congratulations Allan, and may there be many more similar honours for you to come in the future.

Carlisle come to Deepdale today with a magnificent record behind them having lost just four games in the season's league campaign so far. Last weekend they needed a Gallimore penalty to secure a 1 - 0 win over Hereford but it seems however their games go they do enough to win the points, a sign of a confident side. The other significant result of last weekend's curtailed programme was the Chesterfield win over Gillingham. That result took them into a clear second place with Lormer and Law (sounds like a firm of Solicitors!) scoring their goals. Mind you, they must beware of the games in hand of the teams below them, notably Walsall where we are due next weekend. Meanwhile, the dogfight at the bottom continues with Scarborough ruining their fine win at Northampton by promptly losing at home to fellow strugglers Exeter the following week. But Hartlepool are the "out of form" team at the moment and their 1 - 0 defeat at Rochdale has them deep in trouble.

scored his 17th league goal of the season

Wigan have picked up some useful points and their 3 - 1 win at Darlington last weekend was the latest in a good batch of results. Rodwell, Benjamin and Lyons were their goalscorers. On, and a word of praise for the division's comeback of the season so far when Colchester came back from 3 - 0 down at Scunthorpe to win a thriller by 4 - 3.

I'm hoping that the 12,242 top crowd of the season in our division will be threatened today, not only because it is currently held by Carlisle, but because it will also push our average up another notch or two.

As the usual records I update in each programme are unchanged since the Chesterfield game I will leave them out this week and concentrate instead on giving a word of praise to our fans who travelled to Northampton. Once again their numbers did the club proud and the vocal support was superb. I shall resist the temptation to mention the comical chanting about a certain Blackpool Chairman, but suffice to say it made me laugh! Should be good fun at the gigantic reserve derby match next week. I reckon we will beat Carlisle's attendance figure for that game as well!

Not much in the way of ex North Ender news since I last wrote either. David Miller scored for Wigan against Torquay, Warren Joyce scored another for Hull, against Cardiff and Greg Challender scored for Southport at Stevenage in the Conference. I noticed too that there was a Worthington scoring for Halifax, no it can't be, can it? Although I have heard that our Frank has brought out a book on his career, interesting reading I would imagine. Whenever I am in trouble for material for this bit of my article I always turn to two players. Tony Ellis for Blackpool, who this week lets me down and Ronnie Jepson who obliged with his 17th goal of the season, the winner at Wrexham for Huddersfield. One other piece of news, Tony Morley, our former winger who went on to play for England, has joined Bromsgrove as player-coach. Enjoy the game and lift the roof off!!

HERE TODAY

BETWEEN THE STICKS

TONY CAIG.....An almost ever-present this term, Tony has been in good form with 14 clean sheets so far and only a total of 17 goals conceded in the League. The Whitehaven born keeper graduated through the youth ranks at Brunton Park and made his League debut during the 1992-93 season against Halifax Town. Over the past couple of seasons the 20 year old has established himself as first choice between the sticks despite tough competition from Mervyn Day and Tony Elliott.

TONY ELLIOTT.....Former Birmingham City trainee who played for Hereford and Huddersfield before his move to Carlisle in June 1993. The 25 year old has gained England Schoolboy Under-16 and Under-17 caps and has been Carlisle's regular substitute keeper this term. He has made just one League appearance so far this season keeping a clean sheet in the 1 - 0 win away at Gillingham.

LEADING FROM THE BACK

DARREN EDMONDSON.....Darren is now in his fifth season as a professional after starting out as a trainee with Carlisle. The 23 year old is termed a utility player but has played mainly at full-back this season. The Ulverston born defender has so far only missed one match at the time of writing.

TONY GALLIMORE.....Tony was born in Crewe and he started his playing career with Stoke City. He made his League debut while at the Victoria Ground in the 1989-90 season. He spent a couple of loan spells with Carlisle during the 1991-92 and 1992-93 seasons and made the move permanent at the beginning of last season in a £15,000 deal. Primarily left-footed, Tony can play in midfield, central defence or at left full-back. The 22 year old has missed only a handful of senior games since signing for the club.

DEAN WALLING.....Dean, 25, has been in brilliant form this season and has played in all matches to date. The Leeds born player started his career as a striker but has since played in the centre of defence and in midfield. He began his professional career at Leeds United but was unable to break into the first team squad at Elland Road. He moved to Rochdale on a free transfer in July 1987 and gained valuable League experience before moving to Carlisle via Guiseley at the beginning of the 1991-92 season.

DEREK MOUNTFIELD.....Highly experienced centre-half who was brought in to the Carlisle squad at the beginning of the season to add experience to the back line. Derek, now 32, started at Tranmere Rovers as an apprentice and made his League debut in the 1980-81 season. In June 1982 he moved to Everton for £30,000 and clocked up 100 full League appearances for the club and won several major honours including two League Championships, the F.A.Cup and the European Cup Winners Cup, which he added to his England-B and Under-21 caps. He then went on to Aston Villa for £450,000 in June 1988, Wolverhampton Wanderers for £150,000 in November 1991 and to Carlisle on a free transfer during the summer.

PAUL CONWAY.....London born defender who is a New York resident and has represented the United States at Under-23 and B-levels. Paul is in his second season at Brunton Park after joining the club in the first half of last season from Oldham Athletic. He appeared 18 times in the League last term and scored 4 goals. Paul missed the first couple of months this season, but since October has made the number 6 shirt his own.

Jamie Robinson in pursuit of Ryan Kidd

MEN IN THE MIDDLE

RICHARD PROKAS..... Young midfielder who has broken through in to the first team this season. Born in Penrith, Richard joined Carlisle as a schoolboy and progressed through the youth squad to sign professional terms in the 1993-94 season. The youngster made his League debut at Torquay back in August in the 1 - 1 draw and has missed only a couple of matches since.

SIMON DAVEY.....The 24 year old started his career with his hometown club Swansea City where he made almost 50 appearances over 3 seasons. He left the Vetch Field to join Carlisle on a free transfer in August 1992. Up to the end of last season, Simon had clocked up 80 League appearances for the Brunton Park outfit and has only missed a couple of matches this term. He is also team captain.

JEFF THORPE.....Former Carlisle trainee who is now in his fourth season as a professional. Born in Whitehaven, the 22 year old is a utility player who can play either left wing or left full-back. Jeff found himself on the sidelines last season with a JAMIE ROBINSON.....A utility player who can play midfield or at full-back. Jamie started as a trainee at Liverpool before a free transfer took him to Barnsley at the start of the 1992-93 season. After just 8 appearances, he joined Carlisle early last year and made 16 appearances up to the end of last season. Appeared several times this term.

IN ATTACK
ROD THOMAS.....Rod began his career with Watford as an apprentice. The 24 year old has England honours at Schoolboy, Youth and Under-21 level and was a member of the F.A. Youth Cup Winners side in 1989. The youngster made 62 full League appearances for Watford before a brief loan spell at Gillingham and then a free transfer to Carlisle in July 1993. The London born forward has only missed a couple of matches and has scored 7 goals so far this season.
DAVID CURRIE.....Another experienced player who was brought to Carlisle during the summer on a free transfer. David's professional career started at Middlesborough where he made his senior debut in the 1981-82 season. He made 94 full League appearances for The Boro before moving on to Darlington on a free transfer in June 1986. He later moved to several other clubs including Barnsley for £150,000, Nottingham Forest for £750,000, Oldham for £460,000 and Barnsley for £250,000. The 32 year old forward has played in 363 full League matches at the time of writing and has scored 121 goals- an average of one every three games.
DAVID REEVES.....Born in Birkenhead, David's first League club was Sheffield Wednesday. The 26 year old had loan spells with Scunthorpe and Burnley while at Hillsborough before an £80,000 move to Bolton. While at Burnden Park, David formed a solid partnership with ex-North Ender Tony Philliskirk and made over 130 League appearances scoring 30 goals. Notts County snapped him up for £80,000 on transfer deadline day 1993 but just seven months later he joined Carlisle for a club record fee of £121,000. Scored 18 goals in competitions so far this term and is said to be playing the best football of his career.

PLAYER PROFILE

By Martin Breen

GRAEME ATKINSON INTERVIEW

Age:- 23
Born:- Hull, 11.11.71
Height:- 5ft. 8ins.
Weight:- 10st. 8lbs.

Do you have any nicknames at the club?
" There is one gradually spreading around the club at the moment, which stems from the one I had at Hull, which is "Lazza," a lad at Hull called Rob Dewhurst who knows Gareth Ainsworth well mentioned it to him and it caught on."

What attracted you to sign for Preston?
" When I first came over, Gary Peters took me around all the training grounds and showed me the ins and outs of the ground itself, which I liked. I spoke to John Beck about his ambitions for the club and obviously, with the Baxi takeover, I feel this is a club that is going places, a club with a future and I was persuaded to sign."

Prior to signing, you'd only ever played for Hull City, making around 150 appearances for them. How difficult was it for you to leave, you must have been very settled?
" I was settled there and I think coming here was quite a big step for me. At first I found it a little strange settling in. Being a Hull lad, I'd lived with my parents all my life and suddenly I was moving away and leaving a lot of family and friends behind. But I soon made plenty of new friends and the lads are brilliant here and that makes things easier."

When you signed, we were deep into our bad run of seven straight defeats. How did this affect the settling in process and what was team morale like at the time?
" When I walked into the changing room and saw the lads, the run of defeats didn't seem to be having any effects on the team morale. I think in several of those games, the team had been playing very well and had been losing by the odd goal. I don't think the spirit of the lads has changed since the first day I walked in, they're a great bunch and I think that commitment has shown itself in our recent results."

Were you prepared for the long ball style of play favoured by John Beck when you signed?
" I knew how I would have to play and in many respects, the style I'd been playing at Hull was similar, in that the ball was played over the defence, for the wingers to chase and we'd try and play in the opponents half. I felt at times the style wasn't quite to my advantage, as I like to control the ball and pass it, rather than chase it all the time."

So do you think the new style brought in by Gary Peters has suited you better?
" I think it is preferable for most passers of the ball, because you have that bit more freedom and you can try things. People aren't afraid to go out and express themselves now and I think that has shown in recent games."

Have you been surprised at the level of support since you came here?
" I was very surprised at the crowds we got at first, to say we're in the Third Division. The level of support convinced me that this is a club with tremendous ambition and potential and I felt I'd like to be a part of that. It goes without saying what the fans are like, the support is a huge help on matchdays and I don't think any of the lads think we'll lose at home with that type of support."

When you initially signed for Preston, were you in any way concerned about dropping down a division?
" I was a little wary, because I felt I'd established myself as a Second Division player, but I felt that I was signing for a club that will have success soon and so it will hopefully only be a short part of my career in the Third Division. It's a step back in order to go forwards."

Do you think the Third Division is much different to the second?
" The main difference has been the quality of grounds and pitches, which is lower in the Third Division. Some pitches stop you from passing the ball around as much and games can develop into something of a battle."

Having played against Carlisle at Brunton park last month, do you think there is as big a quality gap between the two teams as current league positions suggest?
" I think that had it not been for the bad run of seven defeats, we could have been top of the League by now. I don't think there is any gap at all really and it showed at Brunton Park, where I think we were probably the better side and unlucky not to win."

It must have been frustrating to pick up a calf muscle injury so soon after signing. What were the complications that made recovery take so long?
" It was very disappointing because it cost me my place in the team and since then Kevin Magee has been doing very well on the left and the team has been doing well as a whole, so I've been trying my best in the reserves to try and win my place back. For some reason recovery took longer than expected. The injury was very deep into the muscle and for the first week I could hardly walk, but I have been ok since I came back, touch wood."

Who have you roomed with on away trips since you came here and what annoying habits do they have?
" I've roomed with Lee Cartwright and Gareth Ainsworth. I haven't got any dirt on them yet but Gareth is a big Jim Morrison fan and he gets a lot of stick for it. There is some kind of tradition on away trips, when every time you are out of your hotel room,the other lads come in and wreck it and me and Gareth got our room trashed at Torquay, so we're out for revenge next time!"

Does having so many wingers at the club help to keep you on your toes?
" Yes, it's always good to have competition for places, it keeps everyone eager to do their best. It's also helpful to have such a contrast in wingers. Kevin Magee can go flying past defenders to get his cross in, whereas Paul Raynor is more two footed and uses his tricks and turns to get past his marker. Gareth Ainsworth uses his speed and strength. I think I lack a little bit of pace sometimes, I'm more of a control winger."

What were your impressions of the F.A.Cup Tie against Blackpool in November?
" I watched that game from the stand and I thought the atmosphere was fantastic. The rivalry between both sets of fans was immense and it was always going to be a good game. When I was at Hull, the main "derby" was against Bradford City. They were great games to play in, usually with a crowd of eight or nine thousand. At Preston though, we get seven thousand every week."

Finally Graeme, is there anything you'd like to say to the fans?
" Thanks for your support and please keep it up. If you do, I'm sure we'll have success."

BYGONE DAYS

with Mike Payne

Five years ago yesterday North End fans were in mourning following one of our worst performances of recent times. We lost 6 - 0 at Reading, our fifth defeat in a row. It was the first game after John McGrath had left the club and a rotten start for caretaker manager Les Chapman. Steve Moran, Trevor Senior 2, a Mick Bennett own goal and two more from David Leeworthy made it a Nightmare on Elm Park, as the local paper put it, and what's more, Alan Kelly had a brilliant first half despite letting in four of those six goals. Certainly one to forget. Funnily enough, on the same day Carlisle were just beginning a run of six straight defeats with a 3 - 0 hammering at Peterborough where the goals came from Butterworth, Hine and a certain R.Jepson.

You have to look at February 23rd 1985 for the corresponding fixture ten years ago. That day we lost 2 - 0 at Burnley after goals from Wayne Biggins and Derek Scott. So another disappointing away day for the fans and it was the same for those of Carlisle as they went down in London, 3 - 2 at Fulham. Another goal that day came from an ex North Ender with Don O'Riordan and John Halpin scoring for the Cumbrians.

You will be pleased to know that I have a win record for you from the same day twenty years ago. North End were at home to Swindon and goals from Mike Elwiss and Tony Morley gave us a 2 - 0 victory. That 1974-75 season was incredible for Preston because at this time we were second in the old Division Three but in the remaining 14 games we only managed two wins, and yet we still finished sixth! Oh, what might have been.....Carlisle fans will be less pleased to know that their corresponding game of that year ended in another defeat, 2 - 1 at QPR. Bobby Owens scored their goal but two from Don Givens meant that Carlisle stayed bottom of Division One, a position they held until the end of that disappointing year.

NORTH END ON TOUR

This afternoon by way of a change I would like to highlight a youth tournament that took place in early June 1960 at Chene - Bourg which is just outside Geneva in Switzerland. For most of the 15 North End youngsters in the travelling party it was the first time that they had ventured abroad. Mind you, for Peter Thompson & George Ross it was their second trip abroad in the space of a month as these two promising youngsters were included in the first team squads end of season tour , which ironically was also to Switzerland.

North End's youth team, who were drawn in Group Two, were down to play games of 35 minutes each way against the Italian team Sinnenthal of Monza and the Swiss team Urania Geneva Sport. Group One consisted of St. Etienne (France), Wiener A.C. (Austria) and C.S.Chenois (Switzerland). Preston North End actually came top of their group by beating Monza 3 - 1 and Urania 2 - 0. In the final they came up against the team from Vienna, Wiener Athletic Club. By half-time North End had raced into a two goal lead and in the second half they proved worthy tournament winners by finishing off the Austrian Junior Champions, winning comfortably by four goals to one.

PETER THOMPSON

The goal scorers in the final were Thompson (2), Humes and Morley. The outstanding North End player of the tournament was the Carlisle-born centre forward Peter Thompson whose career progressed so well when he was converted to a winger that he went on to play for the England team at the highest level.

The 1974-75 CUFC Squad at the Carlisle v PNE game 14.1.95

After Preston North End had won the Third Division Championship in 1971 manager Alan Ball decided that what was needed was an experienced centre-forward who had done the rounds, and there was none more experienced outside the top flight than the well travelled Scotsman, Hugh McIlmoyle, who had scored goals wherever he had played. Preston signed him from Middlesborough in July 1971 for a reputed £20,000 fee. Hugh had been around a bit since starting his career off at Leicester for whom he played in the 1961 F.A.Cup final against Tottenham Hotspur. The guy was blessed with good heading skills and could read the game well, and as he had matured he would make as many goals as he scored. Hugh's Preston North End League debut was away at Carlisle of all places, for he had spent two spells with Carlisle scoring over 70 goals for the "Cumbrians". In fact Hugh was living in Carlisle so it was really a "home" game for him. McIlmoyle could only manage a disallowed goal against his former club but he did score both goals in his Deepdale debut against Fulham in a 2 - 0 win. The 150th league goal of his career was scored when he was a PNE player. McIlmoyle ended up as North End's leading goal scorer with eleven league goals, but the following season he did not register one single league goal in his twenty-odd appearances and was transfered at the end of the 1972-73 season to Morton. After top scoring for Morton he ended up back at Carlisle for a third spell. Nowadays he is back in the Leicester area where he works for Walker Crisps. At the recent Carlisle v PNE game last month Hugh McIlmoyle was one of the guests introduced to the crowd at half-time (see photo-graph).

FAMILY FUN NIGHT

The next "Family Fun Night" takes place this coming Wednesday (7.00pm) at Deepdale and sees the visit of the old enemy, "those people with the tower" as boss Gary Peters dubs them - Blackpool.

The record family night attendance is the 3,067 attracted against Newcastle which should be easily beaten on Wednesday. All spectators are advised to arrive in plenty of time to avoid delays at the turnstiles. To cope with the expected crowd, the Town End will be open in addition to the Pavilion.

As usual there will be a variety of events happening around the ground from 4.30pm and there will be players in the club shop from 6.00pm.

PAPER TALK

by Brian Ellis
Sports Editor The
Lancashire Evening Post

This column was intended to be a Cantona free zone especially after all those dreadful jokes that such headline-grabbing incidents always seem to spurn. You know, the ones about Man U's latest away strip hAving vertical arrows and what Camilla and Cants have in common (both got their leg over at the Palace).

But Kung Fu II, the sequel, filmed in Guadaloupe makes L'Enfant Terrible a little difficult to ignore. Especially as he chose to wipe his feet on the shirt front of one of ours.

Poor Terry Lloyd of ITN, sent over there to stick a microphone under Eric's snout and ask him why he hadn't reported to the bizzies.

"Err, excuse me Monsieur Cantona....err, would you mind awfully if we.....err, there's no need to be like that Eric....errrrr, let go of my throat Mr Cantona."

WHACK !

"Goodbye monsieur.....do have a pleasant holiday.....hope we haven't intruded."

Getting the odd dig in the ribs from a reluctant interviewee is all part of life's rich tapestry for members of Her Majesty's Press Corps. It sort of goes with the territory.

But getting them broken is quite another matter. And the unfortunate Mr Lloyd can count himself a shade unlucky to be rebuffed so painfully.

Fortunately not all news targets are as forceful when it comes to saying "no comment."

I once remember trying to coax a few words out of that legend of the one-line put-downs Brian Clough. He didn't beat about the bush - or the ribs for that matter - he just came out with it:

"Bugger off, please."

Snooker player Willie Thorne seemed tempted to lash out, but instead made do with:

"You're a bloody disgrace. I don't know how you keep your job."

And ex-North End manager John McGrath once told me, "I think you'd better belt up....now, small Scotch or large one?"

Usually the non-cooperative subject of media interest just brushes past. Eyes angled down and says now't.

But not our Eric. That volatile Gallic temper, as seemingly unstable as nitro-glycerine, is always likely to go off at the slightest thing.

The big surprise on that beach in Guadaloupe was not so much what he did but who he did it to. Had it been a Sun reporter sticking his chest out for "Glasshopper" to fly kick then no one - apart from the Sun - would have batted an eyelid.

The fact that it happened to be a respected TV reporter, presumably asking perfectly respectable and pertinent questions, makes it a shade more worrying.

On this, the media side of the fence there is clearly no excuse for any subject to lash out, whatever the provocation. But what we seem to forget is that on the opposite side it must take a heck of a lot of self-control to stop yourself chinning a nosey little bleeder with a notebook or mike who is intent on shoving his nose into your private life when you're already at a low ebb.

Black mark for Monsieur Cantona for snapping. Every credit to all those other famous folk who put up with it so patiently and however wound up respond with only a "Bugger off, please."

WASHED OUT

The reserve game at Grimsby (31.1.95) was postponed due to a waterlogged pitch.

FRIENDLY AT GAWTHORPE HALL

(3.2.95) A very strong North End Reserve side played Burnley whose side included ex-PNE players Peel and Phillliskirk. Preston started the game with the wind at their backs. Kevin Kilbane was causing all sorts of problems, and it was no surprise when the Preston winger scored with a crisp shot just inside the left hand post. Burnley who fielded many youngsters came into the game after the break and Richardson had to save a Tony Phillliskirk penalty. Little was seen of John Maduka and he was subbed for Craig Mendum, a trialist from Nottingham Forest, who played up front. In the closing stages Paul Maton equalised for the "Clarets."
PNE Reserves:- Richardson, Kilbane (F), Sulley, Emerson, Hicks, Lucas (R), Holmes, Ainsworth, Conroy, Maduka, Kilbane (K). sub Mendum.

PONTINS CENTRAL LEAGUE DIVISION TWO

PNE Reserves 1 Barnsley Reserves 1
H-T 1 - 0
PNE - Ainsworth 44min.
Barnsley - Payton 64min.
Att. 1,554
Kjartan Einarsson, an Icelandic International, who took up a wide left position, and central defender Lee Harvey, from Aylesbury were two more trialists the boss was casting his eyes over in addition to John Maduka. On a fine but cold blustery evening when the fans were again allowed in for a free, North End did most of the first half attacking. Fleming was only inches wide, Einarsson hit the side netting and Richard Lucas triggered keeper Lee Butler into action as he had to tip his shot over the bar. The "Tykes" played a fluent passing game which was refreshing to see after Saturday's negative tactics from Chesterfield, but their chances were limited, Payton coming closest for them but his shot was too high.
Preston drew first blood just prior to the interval when the impressive Fleming got his cross over and Ainsworth's header found the far corner of the net.
Barnsley began the second period in determined mood coming more into the game. Preston keeper Richardson failed to clear his lines properly with a header and it took a timely tackle from Lee Harvey, who was having an outstanding debut, to save the day. Kevin Kilbane replaced Einarsson on 58 minutes with the youngster opperating in his customary position down the left. It was not Richardson's night as his error from a back pass let in Andy Payton to gobble up the easiest of chances to level the score. The match highlighted North End's problems at the moment, steady enough at the back but are just not ruthless enough in front of goals.
PNE Reserves:- Richardson, Holmes, Fleming, Emerson, Hicks (capt), Harvey, Ainsworth, Lucas (R), Trebble, Maduka, Einarsson.
subs Kilbane (K) for Einarsson, Borwick (not used) and Lucas (D) GK.

PNE YOUTH

by John Draper

After the disappointing home defeat by Wigan Youths a point gained away at Liverpool and a home win against Rochdale has kept us in the top 4 in the league table and given us a springboard to challenge Manchester United for top spot, and the Championship Trophy which this season we are the custodians of. To gain this honour again we must get some good results from this months fixtures, especially this morning's game (18.2.95), when the United Youths visit us at Bank Lane Warton, followed by their neighbours Manchester City (25.2.95). Perhaps it is a bit too early to write about Championships, but with both these teams above us they could at the end of the season be reflected on as the proverbial 6 pointer. Let us hope that the results are favourable !
Pleasing to me in the fixture v Rochdale, was to see the return of defender Gil Brooks. Gil has been out of action since the 29th of October last year with a leg injury. Even in his first year as a YTS he showed maturity on the field beyond his 16 years of age, now in his second year having lost 3 months of the season, he has a lot to catch up on. To this end I am led to believe that his YTS contract has been extended to compensate for this - Best of luck Gil !
As Gil Brooks returned to the team playing in a central defensive roll with Kyle Hayton, out went Damian Corcoran, having to miss the game with, I think, a groin strain, anyway he was limping around at Warton, so let us hope it will not be a long-term injury.

Writing about injured players reminded me of a directive from "The Lancashire Football League" in their January results and newsletter, that after clarification with the F.A. "that it is now in order for the member clubs to use three substitutes, one being named a goalkeeper", as other leagues now do.

LANCASHIRE LEAGUE MATCH REPORTS

Saturday 28th January 1995
Liverpool 'B' (1) 2
Preston N.E. 'B' (0) 2.

North End's youth fixture at Liverpool was only played because the home team have at their Melwood Training Ground a synthetic (plastic) playing surface. A week-end when a lot of football was postponed due to flooding and snow, this game was one of only two played in the whole of "The Lancashire Football League", divisions one and two.
Although North End were 1 - 0 down at half-time, two second half goals by Kevin Kilbane brought a well deserved point home to Deepdale which helped our youths to keep their 4th position in the league, and within striking distance of the leaders, Manchester United Youths.
North End Team:-
Lucas: Stewart, Taylor, McKenna, Hayton, Holmes, Potts, Borwick, Calligan, Maduka, Kilbane.
Subs Bingham replaced Stewart (60 mins.) McCrone (not used).
Saturday 4th February 1995
Preston N.E. 'B' (1) 1 Rochdale 'A' (0) 0.

A Dour Battle:-

This game was very competitive, especially in the middle of the park where neither team were able to create many goalscoring chances. A strong wind blowing across the pitch did not help the situation either.
Mike Brown playing his first competitive game since joining North End from Shrewsbury Town did not have much chance to show his skills, closely marked by Rochdale's full-back Price (a former North End Schoolboy). He struggled to get control of the ball when passed to him down the right hand touch-line, the conditions not helping him at all, in fact the wind was that strong it lifted the ball over the boundary fencing twice. The B.A.E. security men having to retrieve the match-balls before they rolled towards the runway.
North End could easily have gone one goal down as early as the 8th minute - David Lucas in goals pulled off an outstanding one handed save from a header which was destined for the top corner of North End's net. A minute later North End took the lead, captain Chris Borwick from well outside the goal area on the right, shot at goals, the ball lifted over the top of the visitors defence and North End's forwards alike, Chris Clarke the Rochdale first teamer goalkeeper recovering I am led to believe from a bad facial injury seemed to have it covered at the far post, but all of a sudden the ball dipped under the cross bar into the top corner. Whether the wind caught it or the keeper miss timed his save we will probably never know. Anyway we obviously did not know at the time that Chris's goal would win us the 3 much needed points.
Mick Brown and trialist Craig Mendum (from Nottingham Forest), were replaced by Paul McCrone and Stuart Bingham in a double substitution on 63 mins. played, but this move did not seem to spark the game into life.
And so as time rolled on it was obvious that to be sure of the 3 points, North End needed another goal, which was not forthcoming at all. The nearest chance we had was a John Calligan header (73rd min), which thundered against a post. So in the end the early Chris Borwick goal saw us through, but overall we had to be thankfull to keeper David Lucas, who made some very important saves throughout the game and for a good "last ditch" tackle with a couple of minutes remaining by Chris Borwick, which denied the Rochdale lads a good scoring chance.

North End Team:-
Lucas: Stewart, Taylor, McKenna, Hayton, Brooks, Brown, Borwick (capt), Calligan, Mendum, Potts
Subs McCrone replaced Brown
Bingham replaced Mendum.

FANSCENE I.S.A.

PRESTON NEOSC

Welcome to Deepdale, and welcome to a ground with "real" atmosphere. Despite our League position all season North End still head the division's highest average attendance table and our support home and away remains the envy of most clubs, including Carlisle.

Today sees another "all ticket" fixture for us and as at Northampton last week the sheer inconvenience of such restriction always tends to reduce attendances with North End's final count of support again over 1,000 at Sixfields.

Wednesday Night

This Wednesday 7.00pm, no excuses please, it's PNE Reserves v Blackpool Reserves.
It's been billed as the return of the donkey lashers and we are aiming to top 4,000 supporters! Owen Oyston brings across our friends from the seaside as we go all out to beat their lowest first team attendance in another show of true support.

Please support the Whites, you know it makes sense.
* If you don't ever visit a reserve game again come on Wednesday night. *

Saturday 18th March

St. Anthony Club, Fulwood (rebuilt and refurbished), it's a meet the players and staff night, together with food and a disco, all for just £2.50!
An excellent way to finish off the Saturday following our game/victory over Bury.
Tickets will be on sale on the night or in the Sumners prior to the Bury game.
Advance tickets can also be bought by contacting Linda Fishwick on Preston 312967.

* Please support PNEISA and help us support PNE.*

Cumbrian Whites

In the near future it's planned that players and officials from North End will be visiting our large and loyal Cumbrian supporters (probably in the Kendal area), to have an informal question and answer type social evening. Please watch this space and local press for details.

Walsall Next

Next Saturday it's back down to Walsall's MFI style Stadium. Let's get there again in good numbers and as always, let's be loud and proud.

And Finally...

Thanks to the players and members who turned up on Thursday night at London Road Labour Club. Another successful, worthwhile evening which raised funds to be ploughed back into the club we all support. Preston North End,
Come on you Whites!

Baxi on the Ball.

Shown here is our centre forward, the incredibly popular Baxi Bermuda RG.
The rest of the squad includes a wide range of gas firefronts, wall heaters and boilers, which perform to the same exacting standards of premium quality and High performance.
Phone Baxi on 01772 695555, maybe you'll become a supporter.
